WILL TRACE BE TEMPTED TO HIT THE ROAD?
A FRIEND AND THE SPOTLIGHT TRY TO REEL HIM BACK ON 'CHESAPEAKE SHORES'
PREMIERING SEPTEMBER 1 ON HALLMARK CHANNEL

STUDIO CITY, CA – August 7, 2019 –Trace’s (Jesse Metcalfe) commitment to planting roots and winning Abby (Meghan Ory) back is tested on “Chesapeake Shores” when a friend urges him to return to his music career in “Leap of Faith,” premiering Sunday, September 1 (8 p.m. ET/PT), on Hallmark Channel. Abby (Meghan Ory) puts her work life in jeopardy investigating a client’s dubious business practices, and Connor (Andrew Francis) also faces professional consequences after making an impulsive decision. When dangerous practices catch up to a former business partner, Mick (Treat Williams) anticipates legal troubles of his own. Jess (Lacy J. Mailey) and David (Carlo Marks) try to go back to where it all started. Bree (Emilie Ullerup) worries that her chemistry with Simon (Oliver Rice) does not live up to that of her autobiographical play’s characters. Kevin (Brendan Penny) saves a former coach’s life and is reminded of the impact he’d had on the community. Meanwhile, Megan (Barbara Niven) jumps at a new opportunity to help Kevin and Sarah (Jessica Sipos).

“Chesapeake Shores,” is a Chesapeake Shores S4 Production Inc. production, in association with Daniel L. Paulson Entertainment. Dan Paulson, Michael Berns, Nancey Silvers and Sherryl Woods are the executive producers. Steve Kennedy, Ben Mallin, Kirsten Hansen, Brian Ross and Michael Shepard are co-executive producers. Matt Drake serves as producer. Terry Ingram directed from a script by Kirsten Hansen.
